Section 1. Chapter 23 Of The Smithfield Code Of Ordinances Entitled “Civil Defense” Is Hereby Amended By Adding Thereto Sections 23-2 -23.2-9 Entitled “ State Of Emergency Resulting From Novel Coronavirus Known As Covid-19”

WHEREAS, the Town of Smithfield on the 19th day of March, 2020, needs to address a public health crisis resulting from a state of emergency posed by the novel Coronavirus known as COVID-19;

WHEREAS, on March 9, 2020 the State of Rhode Island Governor Gina M. Raimondo issued Executive Order 20-02 declaring a state of emergency due to the outbreak of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, cases of COVID-19 have been documented in the State of Rhode Island;

WHEREAS, the State of Rhode Island Governor Gina M. Raimondo has requested that all Rhode Island Cities and Towns declare a local state of emergency, in response to this ongoing public health crisis;

WHEREAS, the State of Rhode Island and various public health officials have reached out to the Town of Smithfield to take steps to contain the spread of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, the Town of Smithfield needs to take additional measure to limit the spread of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws § 30-15-12 and 30-15-13, as well as Town of Smithfield Town Charter § C-2.14, permit the Town Council to declare a state of emergency for the purpose of, among other things: providing for the cooperation in epidemic prevention, preparedness, response and recover; preparing for emergency health threats that require the exercise of extraordinary governmental functions; providing the town with the ability to respond rapidly and effectively to potential or actual public health emergencies; and reducing loss of life;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws §§ 30-15-9(e)(4) and 30-15-12(b), as well as the Town of Smithfield Town Charter § C-2.14, permit the Town Manager, as authorized by the Council, to suspend the provisions of any statute, regulation, or requirement prescribing the procedures for the conduct of town business, or the orders, rules, regulations of any town department, board, or agency, if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder or delay necessary action in coping with this emergency; and

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws § 30-15-9(e)(3) and (7), and 30-15-12(b), as well as the Town of Smithfield Town Charter § C-2.14, permit the Town Manager, as authorized by the Council, to transfer the direction, personnel, or functions of town departments and agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services; to control ingress and egress to and from high risk areas, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein; and to take appropriate measures for the protection of health, safety, and welfare of the people of the city/town and to prevent or minimize the loss of life.

WHEREAS, the Smithfield Town Council has determined that extraordinary measures must be taken to alleviate the serious health consequences associated with the virus and to protect and rehabilitate property;

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE SMITHFIELD TOWN COUNCIL NOW, THEREFORE, the Smithfield Town Council, by virtue of the authority vested in said office, pursuant to the Rhode Island General Laws and the Smithfield Town Charter, including but not limited to Title 30, Chapter 15 of the General Laws and Smithfield Town Charter § C-2.14, do hereby order and direct the following:
